

Electric engines are the way of the future – and PVS Plastics Technology, a long-established company with 500 employees in US, Germany, China and Hungary, is a leader in this field. Our high quality standards and technical innovativeness in the overmolding of stators and rotors and in the manufacture of precision fan wheels have made us what we are today: a top supplier whose products enjoy ever-increasing popularity.

Would you like to play an active role in shaping our success story in a position that will arouse your curiosity and challenge you? Then we have just what you're looking for.

Plastic Injection Molding Project Manager

at our Huber Heights location in Ohio, USA

Job information:

- Company: PVS Plastics Technology Corporation
- Location: Huber Heights, OH 45424
- Job status: full-time
- Occupation: plastic injection molding project manager
- Category: manufacturing / project management
- Years of experience: 3–5

Job description:

- Implementing and supervising an assembly line for HVAC modules used in automobiles
- Initiating and overseeing technical solutions to problems together with the other departments
- Carrying out projects according to quality, cost and deadline criteria (automation, injection molding tools, etc.)
- Serving as a point of contact between German headquarters, customers and suppliers of injection molding tools
- Creating, maintaining and controlling project plans

Core tasks and responsibility:

Implementing company policies and procedures and all safety and security measures

Knowledge, skills and abilities required:

- Sound knowledge in the fields of production technology and project management
- Project management experience for production operations in the mechanical engineering, plastics or automotive industry
- Technical affinity
- Experience with Microsoft Office and project planning software
- Willingness to travel abroad on occasion

Qualifications:

- High school diploma or GED, technical certification preferred
- Experience: 3–5 years

Authorities:

CEO

Safety:

- Must wear personal protective equipment at all times
- No jewelry or loose clothing
- Must follow established safety procedures

Quality:

- Responsible for his/her quality
- Responsible for in-process inspection

PVS Plastics Technology Corporation

Phone Number: 937-466-9702

Fax: 937-233-4378

Email: b.geyer@pvs-plastics.net