

In a world where electric motors are the global future, PVS Plastics Technology is a leading pioneer. Its worldwide employees provide the highest quality and technical innovation of over-molding of stators and rotors as well as the production of precision fan wheels, making us a top supplier of many manufacturers in several industries. To build upon our success, we are looking for a

CMM Programmer Zeiss Calypso

in Huber Heights / Dayton Ohio

Job information:

- Company: PVS-Plastics Technology Corporation
- Location: Huber Heights, OH 45424
- Job status: full time employee
- Occupation: program or calibrate the coordinate measuring machine (CMM)
- Category: manufacturing
- Years of experience: 3 years in similar position
- Career level: experienced
- Wage rate: $ 20.00 to $ 25.00 / hour
- Work location: one site

Job description:

- Maintains safety and good housekeeping standards for the site
- Works under current and approved processes
- Reports and documents non-conformances, CARs and continuous improvements
- Coordinates, reviews and presents all required reports to internal users and customers
- Coordinates and supports all activities concerning the Zeiss CMM's, including programming, troubleshooting, planned maintenance, annual certifications, repairs, and upgrades
- Programs the CCM to measure per drawing specifications
- Devises and implements new programs and measurement methods that will be used to conduct quality control inspection of incoming material for conformance to specification
- Participates in gauge recall and certification tracking activities
- Makes decisions within established standards or procedures
- Performs other duties as assigned

Additional responsibility:

- Determines conformance of products based on data received from CMM
- Schedules CMM maintenance
- Stores programs according to applicable work instructions
- Runs existing programs as necessary
- Writes programs based on the available software for the CMM

Knowledge, skills and abilities required:

- Ability to work with little to no supervision
- Good written and oral communications skills
- Ability to work well with others, exhibiting teamwork
- Ability to multitask
- Attention to detail
- Intermediate / advanced knowledge of gauges and CMM's
- GD&T format knowledge
- Proficient with Zeiss Calypso

Qualifications:

- High school diploma or equivalent preferred
- Experience: 3 years CMM programming preferred

Benefits:

- Shared-cost health, dental, and vision insurance
- Employer-paid short-term disability and life insurance coverage
- 401-K match

PVS describes its culture as:

- Outcome-oriented: results-focused with strong performance culture
- People-oriented: supportive and fairness-focused

Authorities:

- Plant Quality Manager

Safety:

- Must wear personal protective equipment at all times
- No jewelry or loose clothing
- Must follow established safety procedures

Quality:

- Responsible for his/her quality
- Responsible for in-process inspection

PVS Plastics Technology Corporation

Phone Number: 937-238-8393

Fax: 937.233.4378

Email: c.terrell@pvs-plastics.net

www.pvs-plastics.net